

A dramatic night scene in a city street. Batman, in his iconic suit and cowl, stands atop the roof of a dark blue police car. The car has "POLICE" and "GPD" written on its side, along with a badge emblem. In the background, other police cars with flashing blue and red lights are visible, along with a crowd of people and city buildings under a dark, smoky sky. The overall atmosphere is one of action and law enforcement.
